

Mary Pugh

Mary Pugh is serving her first term on the Board and is a member of the WSIB's Public Markets Committee.

Pugh is Chief Executive Officer (CEO) and Chief Investment Officer (CIO) of Pugh Capital, a company she founded in 1991. Her vision for the firm was to create a diverse Seattle-based asset management firm as a trusted partner to her clients. Pugh Capital manages $4.7 billion in assets and specializes in fixed income portfolios for institutional investors. As CIO, Mary is responsible for establishing clients' asset allocation and serves as the firm's macro-economic strategist.

Her long history of community service includes working to improve the success of students of color and sharing her passion and knowledge of investments. She serves on several investment committees, is Vice President of the Greater Seattle Chapter of the Links, and serves as a board member of the Seattle Central College Foundation.

Her past board positions include: the Seattle Branch of the San Francisco Federal Reserve Bank, The Seattle Foundation, Seattle Academy of Arts and Sciences, the Greater Seattle Chamber of Commerce, the YMCA of Greater Seattle and the University of Washington Medical Center.

Pugh graduated from Yale University with a bachelor's degree in Economics.

